Changed my mind about Henkiewicz found this exhibition to be honest/ raw, compared with the more polished reproductions that are more familiar with (+ don't like). Inspiring me to want to paint again.

I agree with others - this artist needs a permanent presence here in Plymouth. The mural on the Barbican is now heartbreaking.

Fascinating, this exceptional man/artist possessed an insight shared by so few of his fellow humans it would seem;
and he was a marvellous painter.

24.4.16

Amazing! Just beautiful. So glad I met him.
powerful! - spoilt slightly by the light reflectors in the gallery from big windows - difficult to see paintings without reflectors -
... the RA should praise.
